SUBJECT: Press Release Ray Vintona

Looking the past to shape the future. This is the spirit of Ray Vintona's collection, proposed by the Stylist Davide Terraneo.

Refined materials, tailored-made clothes, using fabrics made as once, which only the elegance of the past can convey, for clothes that tell a story.

That's what inspired Ray Vintona collections: shirts, trousers and jackets, following the top of traditional "Made in Italy", prints and designs which distinguish the brand in the past.

"I imagined every single item as a jazz jam session: the different materials are the instruments, the manufacture is the execution and the result is a unique performance. Just like Ray Vintona's collection", the stylist Davide Terraneo has commented on his collection, inspired by his vintage taste, taking inspiration from the years in which classic elegance was an expression of great personality.

The "Ray Vintona" collection is being present to the world as a unique brand, which takes in the well-known perfection of "Made in Italy", with a design of classical taste and with a touch of anti-conformism, without excess, where the essential are second only to research and he interpreted fashion proposal brings out the best in the taste of elegant sportswear.
